

IN RECOGNITION OF “CAROLYN S. MAUND”

WHEREAS, Carolyn S. Maund has been employed with the American Red Cross since March 1, 1983 where she served as the Executive Director; and

WHEREAS, during her tenure with the American Red Cross, this organization has grown to be among the premiere human service organizations in Augusta and the surrounding area; and

WHEREAS, under Carolyn Maund’s watch, the Augusta Red Cross has grown from a small but responsive organization to a major emergency response and communication center; and

WHEREAS, Carolyn Maund retires from the American Red Cross in Augusta, Georgia after 20 years. She has touched so many lives in so many ways. This community will reap the benefits of her hard work many years to come.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Young, Mayor of the City of Augusta, do hereby proclaim March 18, 2003 to be “CAROYLN S. MAUND DAY” in Augusta, Georgia, and ask all citizens to join in the recognition of her enormous contribution to our community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of Augusta, Georgia to be affixed this 18th day of March 2003.
